The Scoreboard

Year #3, Issue #1

June 1994

Hi there sports fans! Sorry this first issue is a little late:(This will be the going format for my monthly report instead of the 3 pagers you were used to in years past. Thanks to PTP version 5.03, you can now view each teams game scores against each team in the SCORES section of the reports module.

IF YOU SEND IT, I WILL WRITE

I will still take any newsworthy information that you have about your games or series and put it in here for the league to enjoy. I cannot read minds!!

THIS MONTH'S HIGHLIGHTS

June saw three teams jump out to a 13-7 record, spearheaded by the new-look Dayton Flyers. I guess now that Jim O'Brien is out of town you can start winning now, huh Jim??!! The Flyers hold a slim one-game edge over the Frankfort Tigers in the East. The west also sees a newcomer to the top of the heap in Mike Cascarano's newly-named High Desert Mavericks. Guess the name WIND really sucked, huh?? The 1955 defending champion Saxons are also tied with the Mavericks.

BLUEBIRD FEATHERS

The Heartland Bluebirds put together a good month despite being blown out 22-0 by the Blue Sox in game 2 of their series. Tom Gorman's 2-hitter was the highlight of that series, along with a series victory against the Tigers.
