The Scoreboard

Year #3, Issue #2

July 1994

Dog Day greetings to all. As we get deeper into the 56 campaign, the cream of the crop starts to show, except in the Western division where it's just about anybody's ballgame. The World Champion Saxons slipped in July into 5th place, with the Mavericks still holding onto a slim lead. The Tigers in the East are cruising and clubbing their way past the rest of the division.

FROM FRANK PAPP

In game 2 vs. the RIFLES, Sad Sam Jones was no-hitting his way thru 7 innings, when the astute manager of the Falcons made a clever move by bringing in Mossi to pitch the eighth and then batting him in the 2-slot. Imagine Mgr. Papp's surprise when in the bottom of the 8th, who leads off, not Ted Williams, but Don Mossi. With a red face, Papp allows Mossi to bat and of course he promptly wacks a single to left breaking the no-hitter, leaving Jones to pitch a one-hitter. Mr. Papp would also like to thank all the fellow managers who refused to trade for Junior Gilliam!

AUGUST GAME DISKS

I humbly ask that you get your August disks in as promptly as possible. My wife is due at the end of the month, and I would like to get the August disks out before the baby leaves the bullpen and enters game. Thank you!

DISK MARKINGS

Starting this month, you will receive two disks (if you send me two disks, otherwise the stats will be placed on one, but I would prefer two), one marked MON for the monthly stats and the other marked YTD for the year-to-date stats.
