The Scoreboard

Year #3, Issue #5

October 1994

The Giants win the Pennant!! The Giants win the Pennant!!sorry, I was just replaying my 1994 Japanese season on PTP. By the way, is Sadaharu Oh available in the 57 draft?? October saw the picture clear on a number of fronts. The Mavericks hold a 4 game lead over the Falcons and Black Sox, but play both in November. The Tigers have all but mathematically eliminated everyone else in the East, enroute to a 107 win pace.

HEARN NEAR PERFECT

High Desert's Jim Hearn went one out in the 7th with a perfect game before issuing a one-out walk to pinch-hitter Joe Caffie. The No-No went by the wayside in the 8th when Dusty Rhodes singled to lead off the 8th.

PITCHING RECORD?

The Black Sox's Herb Score, the league leader in both walks and strikeouts, whiffed what appears to be a SPB record 16 batters in a 6-3 win over the Bluebirds. Score only allowed two free passes, striking out every starter at least once with the exception of Chico Carrasquel. If anyone has proof of a higher strikeout performance, please let me know!

BAGEL WARS

The Pacific Cascades and the Evanston Black Sox engaged in a 0-0 tie after the first 11 innings of play, an almost unheard of event in the year of offense. Don Newcombe, starter for the Cascades, went the first 11 innings, allowing only 3 hits, only to get a no-decision.

MINORS VIOLATE HUMAN RIGHTS?

In a recent series between the Minors and the pitching-poor Minors, the computer manager showed no mercy with the Minors averaging 12 runs per game. Their 3 losses were by the scores of 14-10, 7-5, and 4-3, but their 4 victories were 13-2, 19-12, 19-9, and 13-8. Nothing like beating an opponent into submission. We need a kinder, gentler computer manager that will substitute in massacre games!
