The Scoreboard

Year #3, Issue #6

November 1994

Congratulations to the Frankfort Tigers and the High Desert Mavericks for winning their respective divisions. This in itself is a monumental feat. The Tigers won a record 110 games...one short of the 54 Indians. As you may well know by now, Mickey Mantle eclipsed Babe Ruth's home run record with 66 of his own. I will expound more on this in the 1956 Yearbook. Just remember, anything can happen in a 7-game series!

FINAL STATISTICS

The two disks you received contains the monthly stats for November, in addition to the home/road stats for each team. I will go more indepth, once again, in the Yearbook into the team stats.

POST-SEASON TOURNAMENT PLANNED

For those of you who couldnt make the post-season, I will be conducting a post-season tournament for the remaining teams to determine the "Best of The Rest". Each series will be 7 games, with the two teams with the next best records in each division (Rifles, Flyers, Falcons, and Black Sox) getting a bye in the first round. It will be SPB's version of the NIT. A profile will be made from each team using their best players with tendencies all set to NEUTRAL. Results will be published in the Yearbook. This will take the place of the All-Star game for this year.

TURNBULL GETS ORDERS

Unless you havent heard, I will be going to Korea in June for a year tour. I will still be involved in the league, but a temporary statistician has not been chosen yet. I will still be publishing the Yearbook while I am over there provided I get ahold of the stats and other info. If you would like to volunteer for this challenging task, contact myself or Jim.
